IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO. 147 OF 2006

Bajirao Govind Mane ..Petitioner (Accused)

versus

State of Maharashtra ..Respondents

Mr. I. Joshi for the Petitioner.

Mr. I. S. Thakur, APP for the Respondents - State.

CORAM : D. G. DESHPANDE, &
V. K. TAHILRAMANI,JJ.

DATE : 24TH MARCH, 2006

P.C. :

1. Heard.

2. Rule. By consent Rule is made returnable forthwith.

3. Petitioner - accused has filed this petition for furlough leave in order to enable him to attend to his daughter who has to be operated upon at Kolhapur Hospital for Acute Appendicitis. The petitioner has annexed medical certificate dated 19.12.2005. We had given time to the learned APP to verify. He has no instructions till this date.

4. Counsel for the Petitioner further states that even though the certificate is issued by Medical Officer at Balinge, the operation is to be performed at Kolhapur Government Hospital. He further states that the Wife of the petitioner does not stay with the daughter and he is the only person to look after and take post operational care. In the circumstances, We, Order, that the petitioner be granted furlough leave as per the usual terms and conditions. Petitioner to mark his presence before the Balinge Police Station, Tal : Karveer, twice in a week. Petitioner to surrender after the period of furlough leave is over. No further extension will be granted on this count.

5. Rule made absolute accordingly.

(D.G. DESHPANDE, J.)

(V.K. TAHILRAMANI, J.)